Madam:

Felicitations!

The Cebu Normal University-SOSCIety, the official organization of social science education students of the university, will be holding a culmination program of the National Heroes Day this August 29, 2014 with the theme "Awareness, Involvement and Action: The Realization of Young Heroism". The organization aims to value our national heroes by instilling and strengthening youth leadership as young heroism is next to it. The organization believes that through this, youth as the hope of our nation will be put into reality. Because of this, the organization will be conducting a Young Heroes Congress. This will be a gathering of all student leaders from different secondary schools both private and public wherein they will learn and be aware of the different issues that need to be responded to promote nation development.

In line with this, we would like to request from your good office an endorsement notice for the expected participating schools. The participants are required to pay the registration fee worth 70Php. Attached herein is the justification of the registration fee and the programme. Your cooperation will make the program successful and fruitful.

We are hoping for a positive response. Your office can contact us through this number: 09423472501.

Thank you and God bless.

Sincerely,

JAMAAL OMAMALIN
