Development Bank of the Philippines

11 July 2014

Dear Cardholder,

Thank you for your continued patronage of the Development Bank of the Philippines. Your loyal subscription to our products and services has pushed us to enhance our level of service to address your banking needs.

In 2009, DBP became the first government financial institution in the country to become a principal member of Visa Inc., thereby opening our channels of banking from domestic to international. Since then, we have strengthened system security and heightened our network reliability to present to you your new DBP card, the DBP ATM Visa Card.

Your DBP ATM Visa Card is accepted for over-the-counter purchases. Shop at your favorite stores, dine at your favorite restaurants, do these and more without having to withdraw cash from the ATM. The DBP ATM Visa Card opens a whole new world for your convenience.

Your DBP ATM Visa Card can be used in over 30 million in-store and online merchants and 1 million ATMs worldwide. Use your card abroad without the hassle of converting your money to your destination's local currency. The DBP ATM Visa Card automatically adapts the currency of the location where you will transact, and that includes online shopping.

For you to enjoy these privileges, we request that you visit your branch of account and claim your DBP ATM Visa Card on or before September 30, 2014. We shall be shifting all our cards to Visa, and your existing regular DBP ATM Card shall be deactivated after the said date.

Your DBP ATM Visa Card comes with a quick reference guide so you can enjoy its new features and functionalities right away. Should you need further clarifications, you may contact our ATM Helpdesk at +6328189511 locals 2527, 2542, and 2536.

The Development Bank of the Philippines is fully committed to deliver the products and services you truly deserve.

Sincerely,

GERALD S CRISOLOGO
Vice President, Cards and ATM Department
