DATE : March 20, 2017

X=====/
The Honorable Secretary of Education Leonor Magtolis Briones has designated Undersecretary for Administration to represent the department and the country to the Second International Conference on Safe Schools on March 28-29, 2017 at Buenos Aires, Argentina.

The Safe Schools Conference is an inter-governmental commitment to protect students, teachers, schools and universities during armed conflicts.

In view of this, you are hereby requested to submit a list of schools (if any) in your area of jurisdiction that have been involved in armed conflict situations from 2013 to 2017. The involvement includes either being within 500m to 1 kilometer distance from the presence of armed combatants at any given time, having classes suspended as a consequence of nearby armed conflict, or having school administrators, teachers, students and/or service providers prevented from going to the schools and/or performing their school-related works.

The report should include the names of schools, addresses, number of students affected, incidences, number of days or period, and involved armed combatants.

Schools which will not be submitting reports will be listed as schools free from disturbances of armed conflict since 2013.

Please email your report to Miss Ida F. Cabantan, Supervising Admin. Officer (email add : idaforcabantan@yahoo.com) on or before March 23, 2017, for consolidation.

Immediate dissemination of and compliance with this Memorandum is desired.
